THE LIGHT OF THY DARK EYES

ARRANGED FOR THE

GUITAR

by

C. G. WEBER.

St Louis BALMER & WEBER 58 Fourth St

ANDANTE.

3. Then might the sun his rays de-ny, The moon her pa-ler light, And

1. Let others gaze the stars a-mong, That gild the up-per skies, A all the orbs in you - - der sky, With-draw their beams at night. With sweet - er theme shall be my song, The light of thy dark eyes. The

- draw their beams at night. With - - draw their beams at night. And light of thy dark eyes. The light of thy dark eyes. A all the orbs in you - - der sky, With-draw their beams at night.

sweet-er theme shall be my song, The light of thy dark eyes.

Entered according to act of Congress A D 1851 by Balmer & Weber in the Clerks Office of the Dis! Court of Mo:

4. And still a sof – ter, sweet – er light, A light that more I prize, Should

2. That light I fain would have to beam For – e'er u-pon my way, E'en cheer my way and make it bright – The light of thy dark eyes. The dark – ness bright-est light should seem, And night it – self be day. And light of thy dark eyes. The light of thy dark eyes. Should night it – self be day. And night it – self be day. E'en cheer my way and make it bright, The light of thy dark eyes.

dark-ness bright-est light should seem, And night it – self be day.